I'm a Special Education teacher in Oakland, California and a civil rights movement leader. I am Secretary of the Oakland Education Association. The Trump administration is weak and unstable. Donald Trump remains in power only because of the misleadership of politicians and so-called community leaders who treat Trump as invincible. The Democrats have even managed to lose DACA, despite the overwhelming popularity of the Dreamers, by demobilizing the mass movement in favor of ordinary political and legal processes in a time that is anything but ordinary. Millions of people around the world have joined the anti-Trump movement and won important victories -- defeating the first Muslim ban, stopping deportations, and building sanctuary communities. We urgently need the mass civil rights and labor movement to act independently, to come back into the streets to defend DACA, win the Dream Act, stop deportations, and get Trump out Now!

Trump Must Resign or Be Removed

More and more, observers are simply declaring that Trump is going to fire Mueller and shut down the investigation of Trump's various forms of misconduct and abuse of power, creating a constitutional crisis. These same observers are also declaring that in the face of this crisis, Congress will do nothing. The Republican leadership will continue to bow slavishly before Trump. If this happens, only the mass movement of the resistance can defend American democracy against this first step in turning the American presidency into an authoritarian regime. If this happens, EON/BAMN call on all students and teachers and all who care about democracy to turn out immediately and mobilize to force the resignation or removal of Trump. The reality is this mass movement has the social power to save the country. For that we need an independent leadership that will ignore the bad advice of politicians, and trust our own power and methods of mass action as the only effective way to defeat Trump.

EON/BAMN is the only caucus that is committed to rebuilding the power of an independent mass labor movement to force Donald Trump to resign or be removed. The existing leadership doesn't even want to mention his name. There is no question of our strength when we act collectively and have leaders who are fighting to win. EON/BAMN is ready to mobilize the mass movement and lead it to victory. Join the Movement and VOTE EON/BAMN!
