WHY ARE WE STILL FIGHTING:

LOW PAY?
OVER-CROWDED CLASSROOMS?
INADEQUATE STAFFING?

We need:

MORE FEDERAL FUNDING!

We need:

AN EDUCATION BILL OF RIGHTS!

Our NATIONAL UNION has been unable — for decades — to successfully deliver on our most pressing issues. We urgently need a strategy to use our national union — the largest labor union in the entire world — to directly address these problems. We must stop demanding that local unions fight all of our funding battles — and we must start using our national union to go after FEDERAL dollars. We must pursue strategies whose goal is PERMANENT change, and a win at the FEDERAL level does just that. We must demand a FEDERAL EDUCATION BILL OF RIGHTS which, if promoted with a MILLION TEACHER MARCH on Washington DC and the willingness to launch a NATIONAL STRIKE if necessary, would be just the thing to electrify public opinion and push Congress to act and transform our schools into the world-class education system we deserve.

Join me in transforming our national union into a powerhouse for social change.
